

Non-Proselytizing Statement

All are welcome. Habitat for Humanity of South Hampton Roads (Habitat SHR) has an open-door policy: All who believe that everyone needs a decent, affordable place to live are welcome to help with the work, regardless of race, religion, age, gender, political views or any of the other distinctions that too often divide people. In short, Habitat SHR welcomes volunteers and supporters from all backgrounds and also serves people in need of decent housing regardless of race or religion. Habitat for Humanity International and its affiliated organizations will not proselytize, nor will Habitat SHR work with entities or individuals who insist on proselytizing as part of their work with Habitat SHR. This means that Habitat SHR will not offer assistance on the expressed or implied condition that people must (i) adhere to or convert to a particular faith or (ii) listen and respond to messaging designed to induce conversion to a particular faith.
