

Girls Play House. Women Build Them.

3RD ANNUAL WOMEN BUILD WEEK | MAY 1 -12TH, 2023

WHO SAYS ONLY MEN CAN BUILD HOUSES?

We sure showed them when teams of dedicated women pitched in to construct a home for a qualified mom and her two daughters in 2021.

Habitat for Humanity of South Hampton Roads' second Women Build Week (WBW) was a blast. We carried, measured, cut and nailed, then stepped back to admire the roof we built over a wonderful family's head.

Now we're recruiting again for WBW. Are you a woman-owned firm or at least one with a team of go-getters who want to get out on a job site?

Companies or individual teams have to raise at least $3,000 to guarantee the team a shift.

E-mail Dan Lear at dan.lear@shrhabitat.org for more information and prepare to be proud of yourself, your company and your community.

WHAT WOMEN BUILD WEEK SPONSORS ARE SAYING:

"As a participant in Women Build Week, I saw an orchestrated symphony of women who brought an energy and music with the sounds of hammers, saws, nail guns and laughter and gave a song of encouragement to the woman receiving this home. I would recommend every person or business engage in WBW, either as a sponsor or with sweat equity. There is nothing more fulfilling than having the keys to your own home and knowing there is a community that assists with this dream."

- DANIELLE WHITE, PLASSER AMERICAN

"This experience has been so rewarding personally and professionally! Each build I learn a new skill, form new partnerships and create forever friendships while helping a family fulfill their dream!"

- MICHELLE WARD, SOUTH BAY COMMUNICATIONS AND SECURITY

"Participating in Women's Build Week was an amazing experience. I received a firsthand understanding about what goes into building a home, got to do it alongside other women in my company, and all for a great cause - creating a home for a future female homeowner and her children. Putting literal sweat equity into that home, knowing it will help create a safe haven for a family, is something I will never forget."

- LAURA KELLEY, DRAGAS COMPANIES
